

1955 - 2025

MGA 70th Anniversary Gala Weekend July 5th-6th 2025

To mark this very special occasion a Gala weekend has been arranged in Oxfordshire, the home of MG. A Gala dinner will take place at the Sudbury House Hotel, Faringdon Oxon, SN7 7AA on Saturday July 5 2025 and our MGA Day will take place at Fawley Hill Railway and Museum, the home of the late Sir William McAlpine on Sunday July 6 2025.

Pre-booking is required. Details can be found on the MGA Register website or e-Newsletter.

Help us celebrate 70 years of MGA!

- FAWLEY HILL RAILWAY AND MUSEUM -

This unique private museum and railway in rural Oxfordshire is maintained and operated by the Fawley Museum Society Ltd. The railway is around one and a quarter miles in length and features the steepest adhesion-worked, standard gauge railway in the country with a ruling gradient of 1:13.

- Visitors

The museum is private and not open to the Public. Admittance is strictly by invitation only. Visitor's dogs must be kept on a lead at all times and are not allowed in the museum building itself.

- Opening Times and Car Parking

Car Parking is free. The Museum opens at 12.00 Noon. To make the most of your visit we encourage visitors to arrive between 11.30am and 1.00pm. Trains run at regular intervals throughout the day until around 4:30pm

- Train Rides

You are welcome to ride the train as often as you like.

- Museum

Most of the museum is upstairs. Please take care on the stairs and be aware that the upper gallery can become very hot on sunny days.

- Catering

Culinary delights are available from a pop-up café at the rear of the station building or visitors are welcome to bring a picnic. There are several picnic locations around the station area plus a large grassy bank over-looking the railway line where one can sit and watch the train go by.

- An ice-cream van is usually on site

Pre-booking is required so please visit the MGA Register website for more details and booking forms.